Set on the fifth floor of the tightly held Essington Apartments, this north-facing residence plays to one of Newcastle's best outlooks. Light pours in from first glance, while uninterrupted views sweep across Foreshore Park to Nobbys, Fort Scratchley and stretch beyond the ocean toward Port Stephens. It's a dress circle seat to the harbour, where ships sail in and out and the sunrises are simply magical.

The layout is simple and well resolved. Open plan living and dining flow straight to the balcony, where mornings start with coffee in the sun and afternoons roll easily into a glass of wine. The kitchen sits connected without crowding the space, keeping everything practical and within reach. Both bedrooms are tucked quietly away from the social
